

Taught by Cindy Lovell, Ph.D.

Educator Workshops

$99
Includes Materials

Equator Education Workshops ~ Spring 2008 Schedule

Dear Educator:

Are you tired of attending workshops that go over the same material again and again? Are you seeking a workshop that is energizing, rich in content, and comes complete with dozens of strategies you can put to use the very next day? Would you like a workshop where all materials are provided at no additional cost? Equator Education offers such workshops. Taught by Dr. Cindy Lovell, your high expectations will be met head-on in a memorable and exciting exchange of ideas and enthusiasm. Cindy Lovell is a high school dropout whose unusual story includes an expertise and passion for Mark Twain. If you teach reading, language arts, literature, social studies, history, creative writing... If you teach grades 3-12... If you teach challenging, engaging, thought-provoking lessons... this is the workshop for you!

All participants receive a CD complete with PowerPoint presentations and other resources that can be put to use first thing on Monday morning. You will hit the ground running, and your students will discover that Mark Twain might have lived from 1835 until 1910, but his life and stories are as fresh and relevant as any current author.

Dr. Lovell developed and coordinates the Mark Twain Young Authors' Workshop, a full scholarship program, for gifted writers in grades 5-8 held in Hannibal, Missouri each summer. She is an Associate Professor of Education at Quincy University and serves the Mark Twain Boyhood Home & Museum as the Education Coordinator. If you've ever wanted to "play hooky" and not get in trouble, here's your chance. Join this energetic educator for an unforgettable experience. The cost is only $99 and includes all materials. Early registrants will receive a free copy of Cindy Lovell's new children's novel, Not This Sunday. And no, you do not have to read Mark Twain's books before you arrive!

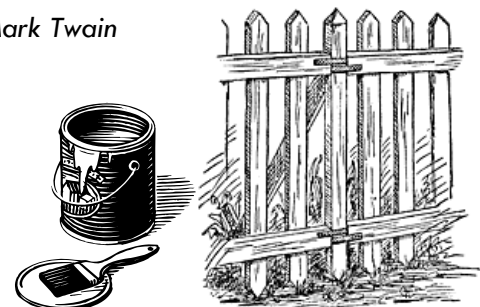

"Classic: a book which people praise and don't read." ~ Mark Twain

"Training is everything. The peach was once a bitter almond; cauliflower is nothing but Cabbage with a College Education." ~Mark Twain

Equator Education Workshops ~ Spring 2008

Register Early!

Phone: 386-405-8635
E-mail: info@equatoreducation.com

www.equatoreducation.com

Schedule ~ Spring 2008: "Mark Twain Goes to School"

Austin, TX

Early Registration: Postmarked by Jan. 1, 2007

January 25

Session A

Long Beach, CA

Early Registration: Postmarked by Feb. 1, 2007

February 29

Session B

Celebration, FL (near Orlando)

Early Registration: Postmarked by Mar. 1, 2008

March 28

Session C

San Francisco, CA

Early Registration: Postmarked by Mar. 15, 2008

April 11

Session D

Boston, MA

Early Registration: Postmarked by Apr. 15, 2008

May 9

Session E

Register Today

$99

Materials Included

Registration Form

First Name		Last Name
Address
City, State, Zip
School
School Address
City, State, Zip
Home Phone		Work Phone
()		()
Cell Phone		Email
()
Session _____ City _____
Cost: $99 (materials included) Payment Method Enclosed: Check _____ Money Order _____ School Purchase Order _____
Credit Card Number: _____ Type (MC/Visa) _____ Expiration Date _____
Signature for Credit Card: _____
Thank you! We will send your confirmation within one week of receipt of your registration. Send payment and completed form to: Equator Education, 1112 Hill Street, Hannibal MO 63401

All workshops are held on Friday:
8:30 am-4:30 pm.
Early Registrants receive a free
copy of Cindy Lovell's
newest children's novel,
Not This Sunday.

Your free copy will be waiting for you at the workshop. See you there!